Polyart Group acquires Glatfelter Caerphilly Ltd, strengthening its leadership in premium and sustainable label solutions

The new UK-based entity will be named Polyart Metallised UK Ltd

Metallised UK Ltd

June 12, 2026 — Polyart Group, part of Prudentia Capital, is pleased to announce the successful acquisition of Glatfelter Caerphilly Ltd from Magnera Corporation. This strategic move further establishes Polyart Group as a major player in the high-value, premium label market.

About Glatfelter Caerphilly Ltd

Based in Caerphilly, Wales (UK), near Cardiff, Glatfelter Caerphilly Ltd employs 44 people and is recognized as a leading manufacturer of metallised facestock papers for pressure-sensitive label applications. Glatfelter Caerphilly Ltd holds strong positions in:

- Facestock for labels in alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages and food packaging
- Wet-glue label solutions, particularly for beer bottles
- Additional markets, including home and personal care

The company is known for its advanced production technology and differentiated expertise in lacquering and metallising, delivering high-performance and customized labelling solutions through a modern, highly-efficient production facility.

A step-change for Polyart Group's customers

This acquisition marks a pivotal milestone in Polyart Group's growth journey, bringing significant benefits to its customers:

- Broader and more innovative product offer, including premium, sustainable, pressure-sensitive, and wet-glue label solutions for a variety of industries
- Access to advanced lacquering and metallising technologies for distinctive, high-value packaging

- Enhanced responsiveness, with increased production efficiency and supply reliability from the modern Caerphilly facility
- Creation of long-term value through expanded expertise, stronger operational capacity, and new market opportunities

From June 15, 2026, the new UK-based legal entity will operate under the name Polyart Metallised UK Ltd.

“We are thrilled to welcome our Glatfelter Caerphilly Ltd colleagues to the Group. This acquisition strengthens our commitment to offering comprehensive, high-end labelling solutions while fostering sustainable growth for our customers and stakeholders,” said Stéphane Daveau, CEO of Polyart Group.

About Polyart Group and Prudentia Capital

Polyart is a leading specialty coating and film manufacturer. It was formed in 2020, by the merger between Arjobex, MDV, Tech Folien and Reisewitz. Polyart manufactures film and paper solutions for the specialty label market (industrial, decorative, and security), for digital printing, the display market and provides custom coatings.

Polyart Group today employs 280 people worldwide, with €83M in sales and six production sites across France, Germany, the UK, and the US, as well as a subsidiary in India and two sales offices in Singapore and Shanghai. Polyart is headquartered in Boulogne-Billancourt, France and owned by Prudentia Capital.

Prudentia's small cap strategic value funds are focused on a specific market niche where significant value creation opportunities exist, outside of the classic intermediated LBO market. Prudentia creates long-term partnerships with successful small and medium-sized companies and their management teams that have financial, strategic and operational needs that they can creatively deliver, unlocking the path for them to become leading national and international companies.
